He said if you want to be a producer, you had to work for it. He was like Mr. Tone - pure and simple - which is exactly what he was. He taught me the difference between playing the guitar and producing a record. He is also the guy who introduced me to the rack mount isolator. When it comes to rock, he doesn't hold back and he also points out mistakes. For his work with the guitar tone, he was nominated for the 2014 Producer of the Year, at the 2013 Amplifier Magazine Guitar Awards. He has produced for anyone from the classic rock acts "featuring the late great Jimi Hendrix, to the punk act, Misfits to the modern rockers " Black Sabbath. PAUL CLARK YOKETON PLATEX.He has played with the well-known guitarists from the world of rock and roll, and he was taught by the late great Jimmy Page. Youngstown " In the early 1960s, guitar legend Jimmy Page " "œThe Lizard King"œ " performed his first concert ever in Youngstown at the age of 15. He says, "œI was excited. Youngstown, Ohio at its finest." Shun It or Use It " The Tone is what you want it to be. To make the quality sound that a lot of musicians are looking for, it is important that you know what your input source sounds like, then know what the output needs to sound like.
